

At the heart of the image

Photo Contest

Saturday, July 14th Nikon and the Arlington Fly-In will hold a photography contest. Everyone is eligible to participate. Register to enter the contest at the Arlington Merchandise location and EAA member Village. Twenty names will be drawn from the entries on Friday, July 13 at noon. Those names will be posted at the Merchandise tent.

The chosen participants will meet at a specified location at 9:00 a.m. Saturday morning. At that gathering they will be given a Nikon Coolpix camera to use for the contest complete with a memory card, as well as instructions on how to use the camera and the contest rules.

Contest Rules:

1. The participants have from 9:00 a.m. until Noon to shoot their pictures for the contest.
2. They must use the supplied camera and memory card.
3. Categories are: People and Planes - Planes as Art - Planes in Flight
4. The participant must turn the camera and memory card back in by noon and must have only three images left on the card. The participant can enter images in all three categories or any combination of categories as long as there are only three images left on the memory card.
5. The images will be judged and the winners announced at 3:00 p.m. in the same location where the cameras were turned in. Keep in mind this location must allow showing the winners on a screen so it must be a room that can be made partially dark.
6. The Grand Prize Winner will win a Nikon Coolpix camera and the other winners will receive prizes courtesy of Ultraflight Magazine.